A Successful Ride

Olivia Veragen, of Lakewood, Colorado, had success as she walked away the champion of the Open Ranch Riding Solid class. Veragen goes to college and rides for William Woods University of Fulton, Missouri. She is a senior majoring in Equestrian Science.

When asked, Veragen explained, “I have been showing in open shows for seven years and been attending breed shows for a year and a half.” This year is the second year Veragen has attended Color Breed Congress. Going into the Open Ranch Riding class, Veragen was nervous as this was her first time competing in the division. Her nerves resided as she began the pattern and was confident in her horse. Veragen was eager and excited when she was announced the winner of the class.

She rode Jazzy San Pep, who belongs to William Woods University. Veragen competed in classes on Jazzy San Pep at Congress last year and at the 2021 Pinto World Championship. Veragen explained she is confident hopping on Jazzy San Pep and competing in divisions, as this was the case with the Open Ranch Riding class. Veragen’s favorite class to compete in is Hunter Under Saddle. Veragen described her goals with horses as, “I want to be a horse trainer or coach, and travel to Pinto Shows with my own clientele.”
