Please complete the W-9 form

You are required to complete the W-9 when submitting this entry. If the W-9 is not filled out, your exhibitor packet will be held until we receive this information. No payout will be mailed without this completed W-9 on file. This W-9 is required by the IRS for persons that qualify for a Miscellaneous 1099.

Form W-9
Rev. October 2014
Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service

Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification
Go to www.irs.gov/Form990 for instructions and the latest information.

Give Form to the requester. Do not send to the IRS.

1. Name as shown on your income tax return. Name is requested on this line; do not leave this line blank.

2. Business name/organizational entity name, if different from above.

3. Check appropriate box for federal tax classification of the person whose name is subject on this line. Check only one of the following boxes.

4. Exemption codes apply only to estate, artists, and individuals; see instructions on page 2:

5. Address (number, street, and apt. or suite no.) See instructions.

6. City, state, and ZIP code.

7. List account number(s) here (optional).

8. Taxpayer's name and address (optional).

9. City, state, and ZIP code.

10. List account number(s) here (optional).

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Notes: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Areas and Number To Give the Requestor for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalty of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must check one of lines 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, line 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/Form990.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from estates or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-R (pension and annuity payments)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1099-INT (interest on bonds, savings, or deposits)
- Form 1099-E (employee wages, salaries, and tips)
- Form 1099-NEC (non-employee compensation)
- Form 1099-SP (capital gain distributions)
- Form 1099-T (dividend, interest, and other income)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What Is Backup Withholding, later.
