The Weekend is Here and so is YEDA

We are thrilled to say day one of Color Breed Congress is under our belt. It was great to see everyone dressed up in their colorful show attire and ready to go. Congratulations to all of our class champions in our showmanship, bareback, and horsemanship classes. Don't worry though, we still have plenty of competition happening over this upcoming week.

The Pinto Horse Association is proud to be hosting the Youth Equestrian Development Association (YEDA) during the Color Breed Congress horse show! This is an important step in creating a new generation of young equestrians.

YEDA is a riding competition program for school-age kids in 4th through 12th grade. The program fosters the development of riders' skills, encourages friendships with other riders, and provides exposure to college programs and scholarships. They accomplish this by engaging in equestrian competitions, instructional clinics, and various networking events.

The YEDA show will be taking place in the Ranger Arena the first weekend of Color Breed Congress. Stop by to support these young riders and learn more about YEDA. We graciously thank all of the volunteers who make it possible for these equestrians to learn and grow!

We are excited to have you here with us for the weekend. Enjoy the warm weather and spend some time with your horses!
