Tina Langness

Tina Langness from New Richmond, Wisconsin, is the Exhibitor of the Day. This is Tina's 12th year showing at Color Breed Congress.

Tina says she commonly shows English classes; with her favorite being Hunter Under Saddle. Today you can catch her showing a yearling stallion commonly known as Wally, more formally named, Hez the Only Impulse. When inquired about Wally's favorite treat, she mentioned his love for minty muffins.

Tina is at Color Breed Congress with the members of the Tina Langness Performance Horse team and is well known for her expeditions as a rider, trainer, and coach. When asked about her favorite memory at PtHA shows, Tina said she enjoys the overall camaraderie of being with friends and the community this organization has to offer.

Congratulations Tina!
