COMBINATION OF COLORS COMING TO TULSA (CONT'D)

said Darrell Bilke, PtHA executive vice president and chief operating officer.

“The association would like to thank our corporate sponsors,” Bilke said. “We would not be able to have such a fantastic show without their support.”

The Cash Challenge classes are sure to be a success again this year with an estimated purse of $15,000. They are open to all breeds.

National Snaffle Bit Association dual approved classes are offered in the Pinto, Palomino and Appaloosa breed show including solid classes. The NSBA classes allow exhibitors to gain points in both associations, as well as to compete for more prize money. NSBA Color Classes will be offered concurrently with the Color Choice Futurity classes.

This year, the Long Ear Congress Show will be held November 1-2 in conjunction with the Color Breed Congress. The Long Ear Congress will consist of an array of classes ranging from Donkey Pleasure Driving to Mule Barrels. Exhibitors will vie for high point and reserve high point buckles. Tioga Territory jackets will be awarded to first place winners of each class (with three or more shown entries) and nylon halters to second place winner(s) (with three or more shown entries) and medallions for first to 10th place entry on the average card for each class. The youth high point overall winner between the Mule and Donkey division will receive a scholarship (only awarded if 20 or more units in the division).

The All Breed Ranch Horse Congress Show will be held November 1-3 in conjunction with the Color Breed Congress, consisting of All Breed Ranch classes as well as PtHA, ApHC and PHBA Ranch classes. The All Breed Ranch Horse Congress Show will consist of an array of classes ranging from All Breed - Youth Ranch Rail Pleasure to Open - Ranch Reining and Amateur Ranch

Confirmation. This year’s exhibitors will vie for high point and reserve high point buckles.

This year, an all new AMHR Mini/PtHA Mini and Pony Show will be held November 1-3 in conjunction with the Color Breed Congress. The AMHR Mini/PtHA Mini and Pony Show will consist of an abundance of classes. This year’s exhibitors will vie for an AMHR/PtHA Overall Combined high point and reserve high point buckles, as well as AMHR Mini and PtHA Pony/Mini Division high point awards that will be a Chair for the high point winner and a Kensington Bridle Bag for the Reserve high point winner. Lastly, the youth high point AMHR/PtHA overall winner will receive a scholarship (only awarded if 20 or more units in the division).

PtHA also will host a Youth Equestrian Development Association (YEDA) Show November 2-3 and a Western Dressage Association of America (WDAA)

Show on November 5 in Conjunction with the Color Breed Congress. Color Choice Futurity classes are also planned again this year.

Besides the horse competition, over 30 vendors will be in attendance at the CBC Marketplace selling everything from clothing to decorations to equipment for showing horses. This is a great time to do some shopping with the holidays approaching.

Entry forms and more information about the 2019 Color Breed Congress, Long Ear Congress Show, All Breed Ranch Horse Congress Show, AMHR Mini/PtHA Mini & Pony Show, and the YEDA and WDAA Show can be found at colorbreedcongress.com.

Incorporated in 1956, the Pinto Horse Association of America was formed to encourage the promotion of quality horses, ponies and miniatures with color and to establish a registry for maintaining their show records and pedigrees. Currently, the association serves approximately 78,000 members and boasts more than 155,000 registered Pintos.
