YEARS OF SERVICE PINS AWARDED AT 2020 JUDGES SEMINAR

The PtHA Judges Seminar was held January 29 to February 2, 2020, at the Hyatt Regency in downtown Tulsa, OK. Speakers included Don McGee and Gene Brown.

Potential Pinto judges were interviewed and then tested by judging videos of different classes. "In this cooperative Judges Seminar it's important for all our breeds to be together, learning about changes to the rule book and discussing best practices. We want all horse show judges on the same page with the most up-to-date information," said Darrell Bilke, PtHA executive vice president and chief operating officer. "The seminar gives them a chance to ask questions and to fully understand rule changes and best practices." Potential judges were interviewed about the PtHA Rulebook.

On January 29, 2020, Jenny La Grange, PtHA president, and Mike Baker, chairman of the judges committee, awarded pins to PtHA judges for years of service from 10 years up to 40 years. Peggy Ivins, Tammy Mills, Teresa Pelton and Billy Steele were honored for 10 years. Dennis Clement, Larry Cline, Timothy Crowley, Drew Emmett, Kathryn Kope, Rick Maxson and Richard Petty were honored for 20 years. Sandra Curl, Ashley Griffin, Robert Milks, Joseph Munie, Lita Perrin and Mark Smith were honored for 25 years. Todd Foltz and James Simpson were honored for 30 years. Rick Bailey, Don Bundick, Cindy Chilton-Moore, Karen Homer-Brown and John Letham were honored for 35 years. Carol Craig and Walter De La Brosse were honored for 40 years.
