

JUNE 17, 2022

Alexus Cole

Alexus Cole is from Patoka, Illinois. She has been coming to the world show ever since she can remember, and she has been showing since she was 5 years old. Her favorite class she shows in is the 3 and 4 year old Geldings. She said, “They are power houses; they are huge and it’s fun to see all the competition”.

When it comes to a preshow routine, for Alexis her family helps get her horse ready. The equine barn she shows with is known as Cole Show Horses in Illinois. Her biggest motivator and cheerleader are her parents. You can find her dad on the sidelines cheering and her mom smiling as she goes into the arena to compete.

On her days off in the barn, she enjoys walking around and checking out the competition, as well as visiting with exhibitors. Next year for the World Show she would like to start training earlier in the year in preparation.

Her favorite part of this world show is seeing all the competitors at the big stage. She really likes the fact that the caliber of competition has increased providing a more competitive showing experience.

Each day at the Pinto World Show an exhibitor will be selected to be featured on the official PtHA Facebook page. Each winner receives a $200 Boot Barn gift card.

*Story and Photo by Erick Moreau
PWC Communications and Marketing Intern*