Carol Timke

Carol Timke is from Prole, Iowa and has been showing at the Pinto World Show since 2001. Her favorite class to show in is showmanship because she likes the precision of the rider and the horse being one. Carol raises and breeds all of her horses. When asked about her horse's favorite treat she said, "My yearling is starting to enjoy peppermints". Painted Acers is her equine barn name in Prole, Iowa.

When it comes to her biggest motivator and supporter, Carol immediately thought of her husband, Mark. She explained he helps groom and prep the horses at shows. Carol also mentioned her three sons who are always asking for updates while at the show, and her sister who shares on Facebook the latest news from the show to her friends.

Carol grew up around the rodeo scene and was riding before she could walk. Next year she plans to bring more of her horses to start competing in a variety of classes. Her favorite memory is when she showed her first year and took home three saddles.

Each day at the Pinto World Show an exhibitor will be selected to be featured on the official PtHA Facebook page. Each winner receives a $200 Boot Barn gift card.
