

Day Ten!

Dressage training and Western Dressage took place Tuesday in the Ford Truck Arena.

Dressage training is the art of having a calm and attentive demeanor while riding the horse through the pattern set. It is considered one of the highest forms of expression in horse training. Western Dressage utilizes western tack compared to regular dressage. Both are similar in the classes and the levels and test that the exhibitors compete in.

In class 474 Kathryn Farley and her horse Murphy's First Law won the World Title. She has been competing in dressage for 3 years. She loves the precision that's involved in the class. When asked about how she felt winning she said, "I feel like I'm going to collapse into a puddle of tears I'm so happy".
