

JUNE 11, 2024

Jacqueline Zacharias

Jacqueline Zacharias from, Adair, Oklahoma, is today's recipient for Exhibitor of the Day. This is her fourth year showing at the Pinto World Championship and she has been showing horses for multiple years with the Zacharias Horsemanship Team competing in various skilled classes. When asked her favorite class to compete in, Jacqueline quickly mentioned her love for Ranch Riding.

Today you can catch her showing Elvis, more formally named Gunning for a Chex, in the Open Ranch Reining class. Elvis is owned by Connie Coker with his favorite treat being apples. Aside from showing horses, Jacqueline maintains a multitude of hobbies. She mentioned some of her favorites would be photography and videography, which she uses to run the Zacharias Horsemanship Youtube channel.

Congratulations Jacqueline!

Each day at the Pinto World Show an exhibitor will be selected to be featured on the official PtHA Facebook page. Each winner receives a $200 Boot Barn gift card

Story and Photo by Brandy DeVous
PWC Communications and
Marketing Intern

