Justin Stohlman

Today's Boot Barn Exhibitor of the Day is Justin Stohlman from Lapeer, Michigan. With 25 years of horse training experience, Justin has been a steadfast presence at the Pinto World Championship Show for the past 15 years.

Though he doesn't have a horse of his own, Justin takes great pleasure in competing in the western pleasure classes. His greatest motivator is his wife, Jamie, who shares his passion for constant improvement. Reflecting on his beginnings, Justin credits his mother as his biggest inspiration to start riding.

Justin's advice for anyone wanting to ride or show is simple yet profound: "Find a mentor."

Congratulations and good luck, Justin!

Each day at the Pinto World Show an exhibitor will be selected to be featured on the official PtHA Facebook Page. Each winner receives a $200 Boot Barn gift card.
